

The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMB. 3057

MONDAY DECEMBER 19, 1743.

Since our last arrived the Mails from Holland, France and Flanders.

Petersbourg, December 1.

HE Departure of the Empress for Moscow, which was fixed for the latter End of this Month, has been again put off for a Fortnight. Her Imperial Majesty has appointed a Committee of Council to settle the Ceremonial which shall be hereafter observed by Foreign Ministers at this Court; and for the more easy putting it in execution, Count de Zantz is appointed Grand Master, and M. Westelowski Master of the Ceremonies. As the Czarina has caused all the Depositions, without Distinction, that affect the Marquis de Bottra, to be put into the Hands of the Hungarian Minister here, she has thought fit to direct her Minister at the Court of Vienna, to acquaint the Queen of Hungary, that she expects full and speedy Justice to be done her, with respect to that Nobleman. Sir Cyril Wych, his Britannick Majesty's Minister, has notified his Recall, and that the Right Hon. the Earl of Tyrrawley was appointed Ambassador Extraordinary to her Imperial Majesty. The Czarina has been pleased to direct the Great Marshal Bestucheff to make all the Dispatch imaginable in his Preparations for going as Ambassador to the Court of Berlin, and in order to make this more easy to his Excellency, her Imperial Majesty has made him a Present of 15,000 Rubles for his extraordinary Expences.

Stockholm, December 10. The Count de Bark, who is appointed Ambassador to the Court of Russia, will speedily set out for Moscow. Yesterday two Russian Regiments arrived here, and were quartered in the Suburbs; they make a very fine Appearance, and observe very strict Discipline. The Baron de Korff will reside here, with the Character of Envoy from the Court of Petersburg; and we are very well assured, that in case all Differences between this Crown and that of Denmark be not adjusted by the Spring, a Body of 6000 additional Auxiliaries will be sent hither; and that a Fleet of 10 Sail of Men of War, four Frigates, and a Fireship, are stationed at Revel, in order to act for our Service as early as possible in the Spring.

Copenhagen, December 14. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Denmark made her Publick Entry thro' this City on the 11th, with the utmost Pomp and Splendour. The Day was a continued Scene of Rejoicing, which concluded in the Evening with the most noble Illuminations. Baron Solenthall, who negotiated this Marriage, has received the Order of the Elephant, the highest Mark of Royal Favour which can be bestowed on any Subject; and the Joy of the Court was, upon this Occasion, seconded by the warmest Acclamations of the People.

Rome, November 30. We have, at last, a very remarkable Piece of News to communicate, in relation to the War which has so long disturbed Italy. The Cardinal Aquaviva had this Morning an Audience of the Pope, to whom he made the following Declaration; That, as he had been long sensibly touch'd with the many Miseries suffered by the Subjects of the Holy See, thro' the long Stay of the two contending Armies in the Bowels of the Ecclesiastical Dominions; and having, for a long Time, as became a Member of the Sacred College, used his utmost Endeavours to find out some Method for restoring Peace and Tranquillity to the Subjects of the Ecclesiastical State, he flatter'd himself, that his Cares and Pains had, at last, brought the Point to bear; since his last Dispatches from Madrid, and the Spanish Army, authorized him to make the following Proposition; That, out of regard to the Holy See, the Spaniards were ready to evacuate its Territories in 14 Days, provided the Austrians would do the same Thing; and that he made no doubt so reasonable a Demand would, as it demand'd, be readily complied with.

We very easily apprehend, that this Language of the Cardinal Minister of Spain and Naples, is an humble Invitation of the Style of the French, when they quitted the Empire; but as it is of very little Consequence to the Pope, whether he is indebted for this Favour to the Favour of the Austrians, or to any other Cause whatever, his Holiness has written in very pressing Terms to her Imperial Majesty, beseeching her to consent to the Proposition made by the Cardinal Aquaviva, and allow the Spanish Troops to retire into the Kingdom of Naples, till the Situation of the Times will allow them to be transported back to their own Country. We expect the Return of this Courier with great Impatience, tho' we have no great Reason to hope that the Court of Vienna will come into this Measure, since our last Advices from Fano inform us, that the English Men of War being arrived on the Coast, Prince Lobkowitz had made such Dispositions, as in a Week's Time would, in all Probability, force the Spaniards to fight, upon very unequal Terms, or to surrender Prisoners of War.

Vienna, December 11. The Russian Minister having received a Courier from his Court, has had several Conferences with our Ministry, and, it is believed, that the Affair of the Marquis de Bottra will be very quickly terminated. We are in no great Apprehensions here about the Consequences of the French passing the Rhine, since, notwithstanding all the boasting Declarations of that arrogant Court, we are pretty confident, that the Queen and her Allies will be able to bring as early and as formidable an Army into the Field, as the Disturbers of the Peace of Europe.

Frankfort, December 19. On the 14th of this Month, his Imperial Majesty thought fit to find to the Imperial Dyet a Decree, requiring the Protestations and Memorials of the Queen of Hungary, transmitted to the Dictature of the Empire on the 23d of September last, to be expunged from the Publick Registers. M. Klingraff, his Prussian Majesty's Minister, is return'd hither from the Tour he lately made to Berlin, in order to procure fresh Instructions as to the present critical Situation of Affairs; but what the Nature of those Instructions are, remains an impenetrable Secret. The Marquis Palavicini, Minister from the State of Genoa, has complained to the Emperor and Empire, that the contracting Powers in the Treaty of Worms, have disposed of the Marquisate of Final, which is a Fief of the Empire, now in the Possession of the Republick, and therefore pray, that his Imperial Majesty and the Germanick Body would be graciously pleased to grant them their Protection.

Liege, December 17. List of the Austrian Troops which are to march through the Country of Liege, and which halt there.

The Regiment of Lignes Dragoons will arrive the 11th of December.

The Regiment of Prie Infantry on the 14th will be at Ouffet.

The Regiment de Los Rios Infantry on the 18th.

The Regiment of Gemingen Infantry on the 21st.

The Regiment of Hoenberg Infantry the 25th.

The Artillery.

The Equipage of the Duke d'Arenberg, and of the other General Officers.

M. Baron de Gemingen has wrote Word that the Roads were very bad, so that it is uncertain whether the Artillery and the Equipages of the General Officers will not take another Road.

Hague, December 10. This Day being the Grefier Fagel's Birth-Day, on which he enters into the 85th Year of his Age, he received the Compliments of his Friends upon that Occasion, and is in as good Health as they could wish him.

Count Maurice of Nassau, Commander in Chief of the Dutch Auxiliary Corps, and General Ginkel, are expected here daily. The Widow, and two Sons of the late Swedish General Buddenbrock, arrived here last Week.

Extract from the Paris Alaman.

Paris, December 25. On the 18th arrived an Express from the Court of Madrid, with Dispatches relating to the Arrival of the Spanish Troops at Toulon; and the next Day he was sent back with an Account of the Dispositions made for their Embarkation.

The Regiment which the King has given Count Lowendhall Leave to raise, will be composed of two Battalions; and as that Officer had the Rank of a Lieutenant-General in the Russian Service, he will serve in the same Capacity next Campaign in the Army of France.

The Hussars which the Count de Saxe has raised in Poland, are expected here by the 6th of next Month.

They are to be supported constantly by a Regiment of Dragoons.

Several foreign Officers have lately quitted the Service of their Native Sovereigns, in order to enter into that of France.

The Captain of Austrian Hussars who lately deserted, and came to demand Employment in our Troops, has obtained Leave from his Majesty to raise a Troop of Hussars. That Officer repents so strongly the ill Usage he has met with from Col. Mentzel, that he had formed a Design of seizing him dead or alive. On the other hand, Col. Mentzel has such a Spleen against him, that he has sent several of his most determined Officers into France, with Orders to assassinate him; which, by timely Information from his Friends in Germany, he has escaped. This Captain pretends, that he can draw over abundance of Hussars.

L O N D O N.

Leicester House, December 15. This Day the Lord Mayor, Court of Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited on their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and made their Compliments as follows.

May it please your Royal Highnesses, We the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of the City of London, humbly beg Leave to present our most hearty Congratulations upon the late Delivery, and happy Recovery, of Madam your Royal Highness, and the Increase of your illustrious Family, by the Birth of another Prince; an Event which must greatly contribute to our Happiness, as it strengthens our present Constitution, and yields a further Prospect of its Continuance in the Protestant Succession of his Majesty's Royal Line.

We cannot sufficiently express our Joy, when we reflect on the many eminent Virtues which, we promise ourselves, will be transmitted from your Royal Highnesses to your Posterity; form'd with the same generous and benevolent Dispositions for which you are so universally admired; and instructed by the same great Examples to pay a dutiful Obedience to his Majesty, and a tender Regard for the Liberties of his Subjects.

Permit us likewise, Sir, to make use of this Opportunity to return you our particular Thanks for the repeated Declarations of your Attachment to the Interests and Welfare of our City, of which you have so graciously condescended to become a Member; and with Minds truly sensible of the high Honour of your Princely Patronage and Protection, we offer up our constant Prayers, that your Royal Highnesses may enjoy all Happiness and Prosperity; and that your Descendants may successively continue the Blessings derived from you to the latest Posterity.

To which his Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I return you mine and the Princess's Thanks for this Instance of your Duty to the King, and of your Regard to us. My Children will, I hope, deserve the Affection you now show towards them; and I endeavour to inculcate early those Sentiments into them, as are agreeable to the Laws and Liberties of the Country they have had the Happiness to be born in. This City may always depend on my hearty Wishes for her Trade and Welfare.
